“ Grew up across the street from his family and was friends with them. My special memories of Dave are the football games in front of the church with him and his uncle Ed and our neighbor, Ben. We were young together and this is such a sad time. He was too young to be taken from his family and friends. Rest in peace my friend.

“ As his daughter my best memories are the little ones. Anything from simply watching tv together to going on walks and talking about the future and life. He always had a way to make everyone laugh even through the hard times. But my very most special memory is when my father and I went hunting. I was sitting at one tree and he was sitting in the other. And a fox came about 3 feet of me. My dad looked at the fox and said “move away from my daughter” and the fox literally walked away😂. From then on he was known as the animal whisperer to me. Everytime we would see an animal when we would go on a walk I would tell him to say something to it😂. Never will forget that memory. And I especially will never forget him
