

Dean A. Heck

June 27, 1964 - January 7, 2022

Dean A. Heck, 57, of Lebanon, passed away on Friday, January 7, 2022, at the WellSpan Good Samaritan Hospital, Lebanon.

Born in Fort Dix, New Jersey, on June 27, 1964, he was the son of Ralph N. Heck of Elizabethtown, and Connie M. (Sherman) Heck of Lebanon. Dean graduated from Cedar Crest High School with the Class of 1982. He worked for ASK Foods, Inc., in Palmyra. He was a train enthusiast and regular visitor to the Railroad Museum of Pennsylvania. He was an avid fan of the New York Yankees and the Dallas Cowboys, and he possessed an encyclopedic knowledge of sports statistics. He also enjoyed time well spent with animals, learning to appreciate the unique traits of everything from farm animals to the family dog. He was a true coffee aficionado, learning to imbibe in the dreaded brown liquid in his teenage years. Dean was not a particular fan of his sisters' vocal stylings, but he tolerated most songs with a suppressed grin.

In addition to his parents, Dean is survived by sisters Karol wife of Brooks Hasting and Lora wife of Andy Strauss, as well as many loving family members and friends.

Funeral services will be private. In lieu of flowers, consider a donation in Dean's honor to Dayspring Christian Academy's P139 program which is named for Psalm 139:14, and is designed to teach students who require alternative or differentiated methods of instruction so they may work to their potential. The school's address is 120 College Ave., Mountville, PA 17554. Include P139 in the Memo.
