“ Dean was a friend for many years and a wonderful Godfather to our eldest son. He managed his illness as he did his life with elegance and grace sharing the memories with his many friends and family. His loving wife skillfully and with great intelligence helped him to manage his many choices with loving care in an exquisite manor. His presence will always be felt in the lives of those who were honored to call him a friend. May he rest in the presence of the Lord forever.

I worked with Dean on the Alpha Sigma Phi fraternity alumni board. The fraternity added to his life as did he to it. He got me involved in it's alumni board for which I'm grateful. He helped mentor the young men of the current fraternity. He and I shared many fraternity stories. He's been a friend and will be missed. Ed Schultz
