“ There is a lifetime of memories I have with my dear sweet sister Deb. She was my sister and friend. I will be forever grateful for the final memory God granted me on Saturday. As I sang "On the Wings of A Snow-white Dove" touched my sister's face she began to hum with me. Forever grateful for that memory. I love you Deb and can't wait to see you again with all those who have gone before me.

“ My deepest condolences to Debbie's family. I have so many fond and loving memories growing up across the street from the Kennedy's.

My sister Brenda and I would ride our bikes with Naomi back to the Bomgardner farm for sleep overs and help Mark with hey. Debbie made the best chicken potpie. So sorry I missed the services. Just seen it now. I would have loved so very much to have seen everyone. If you would like to talk I can be reached at (717) 867-5337

Thank all of you for all the great and loving memories.
May God keep you and Bless you
