

Dennis G. Lentz

March 26, 1958 - February 2, 2024

Dennis G. Lentz, 65, of Denver, PA, passed away on Friday, February 2, 2024, at the Hershey Medical Center.

Born in Lebanon on March 26, 1958, he was the son of the late Ervin R. Lentz and Ruth M. (Miller) Mack. Dennis enjoyed listening to music and watching MeTV. Some of his favorites were: Alice Cooper, Hank Williams, Sr., and The Three Stooges. He was proud of his 20+ year sobriety, as well as his service in the Marine Corp. His last years were spent at Faithful Living, a personal care community. He developed relationships with other residents and staff. Dennis created a “job” for himself by composing stories, poems, and drawing artwork for his friends, family, and care staff. He was faithful in doing this and was hard on himself when he felt he was behind. He was known for keeping his room neat and tidy.

Dennis is survived by his sister Shirley M. wife of James Kennedy, Jr., of Annville, brother Terry M. Mack, Sr., of Lebanon, and nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his stepfather Virgil W. Mack and his brother Gerald L. Lentz.

Funeral services will be held at 11:00 a.m. on Monday, February 12, 2024, at Kreamer & Lum Funeral Home & Crematory. There will be a viewing one hour prior to the service. Interment with military honors will follow at Indiantown Gap National Cemetery.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Dennis and I would often play Rummy when I visited with him. He enjoyed sharing his art with me. I'll miss getting drawings in the mail from him. This past year had been so hard on him physically. It seems like I saw him as much at hospitals as I did at Faithful Living. He always had a smile on his face. I hope that he came to count on me as a friend. I will miss him.

Thank you for sharing. He spoke highly of you. Dennis grew as a person because of things you worked on.

“ I am so sorry, Dennis and I use to ride Topper, uncle D wife's horse. We worked together at the truck stop in the late 70's. I also have fond memories from the VA and American house. I have and always will have a special place in my heart for my cousin.
