“ Woody's son, Paul, is one of my best friends in the world and we met as Peace Corps volunteers in Yap, Micronesia. Woody made the trek out to this remote part of the world to help his son and family with the construction of their home - one of his many gifts. It was truly a blessing for him to be there and for his family and friends in the community to meet him and witness his hard work and devotion to his loved ones and to the Lord. God Bless you, kind sir, and peace be with your family!

“ The best memory I have of Denzil Wood Lane (Woody) would be the great bible studies and Christmas bible study and summer picnic meetings. I learned so much and although I have not been in touch for a few years, I will always be grateful for Woody's fervent love for the Lord and his understanding of the bible.

“ There are so many memories with Woody. Here is a photo of one of the many Christmas parties we enjoyed together. I'll always remember how much of a hard worker Woody was in his garden and always helped us put up corn in the summer. He was a great brother in law and neighbor.
