“ Well, mom it's been almost 4 1/2 months since you went to be with the Lord. And it has gotten harder for me as time goes on without you here. I cannot tell you how many times I think to call you but then realizing that I cannot. Today was one of those days. So, I thought I would reach out to you this way. You are missed more and more each day. I think of you a lot and all of the memories that we shared. I still know that you're with us and watching over us and I pray to you almost every day for guidance and reassurance. Please know that you could not have been a better person, mom, and friend. I truly appreciate what I had with you as my mom. I love you with all of my heart and miss you terribly.

Love you so much,
Susan

“ I was blessed to know Kay and many members of her family through her late sister, Shirley Ann Rexroad. Shirley was a dear friend of mine for over 40 years. Ray, Kay and I shared May birthdays, just five days apart, all being born in 1943. I know Kay was looking forward to being reunited with many loved ones in Heaven. My deepest condolences and prayers go out to the entire family. May the Lord Jesus comfort you and be with you now and in the days to come.

With much love,

“ Mom, you were the best mother that a kid could have. You always loved me with all of your heart. You were selfless and always sacrificed so many things for us to have something we wanted and you did without. You were the glue to our family. We will fight on together as you always taught us to do, but it will just not be the same. I love you with all of my heart. Your big baby boy, Keith.

“ For years you fought the long hard fight over and over and were a true trooper in how you handled it. Finally the body and spirit had enough and now at least the pain is gone and you can rest in peace.
