“ I was wondering what happened to this dear lady, I first met her when she came to my 31 porch sale and we became quick friends, what an impression she made on me and how she loved her grandchildren.

“ Diane and Leon (and Cory) were frequent visitors to the Shenandoah area. Not only to visit her father, but to join in our many Karpovich Family Reunions. Diane (was) a beautiful person inside and out. Her openness and generosity were her strong points. We were sorry to hear of her death, and hope her surviving family members are doing well. Danny Karpovich also sends his regards. Right now, many of Diane's uncles and aunts are in nursing homes, or receiving in home care. They do remember Diane, and are saddened by her passing. Many prayers for Diane's trip to heaven to be with Leon.

“ Diane was my expert trainer as I spent nearly every Tuesday morning with her, in "learning the ropes" as a volunteer at the Lebanon VA Hospital information desk. Diane was a wonderful person and I appreciated her expertise, enjoyed her stories and shared in the experiences we had in helping others. I am very saddened by her passing but will always have the memories. Rest in peace dear friend. Barry.

“ Rest in peace Diane.

It has been many years as I lived next door to the Cominski family in Shenandoah. I was a few years older than Diane and when she was born her dad and mom were so proud. I think her grandmother was still alive at the time, Mrs. Klepacki. She had an aunt, I believe her mother's sister who was always buying outfits for their little girl.

It is a time for memories. God speed young lady.
