“ Dear Anna Mae. So sorry to read of Donald's passing. He will be missed . He once gave me a job when times were tough. Later , from Fort Indiantown Gap I called him for a donation of towels for a 5K run we were having for the military. He said sure and I can pick them up anytime. Imagine our surprise when we picked up a box of 200 beautiful white towels. A thank you letter was certainly not enough. Our soldiers were so grateful to be handed that towel at the end of a hot sweaty run . Thank you again, Donald. My prayers to the family. You were lucky to have him.
