“ I spent a lot of my childhood around this man. As a child I found his strength intimidating. As I grew up I saw him differently. I saw him as a leader, a loving hard working dedicated to family man. I remember as a child my mom having coffee with her mom, brother and sister before work in the morning. I am so thankful and blessed that I was able to sit around your table and share the same! Thank you for opening your heart and arms to me all these years. And thank you for my best friend, your daughter Kelly. She's alot like you and I'm thankful for that too! All my love Uncle Donald Duck ❤️
