“ Dear Mark and Tim,
I remember you as young boys, when you lived with you parents, in the white house near the hospital.
I was a psychiatric aide, lived in the dorm and later in a cottage. It was a pleasure to work with your Dad at Philhaven. He was an effective teacher, good listener, had a sense of humor and a ready laugh. He was insightful and had a quiet spirit. He was appreciative and supportive of his Nursing Staff.
I always enjoyed talking with your Dad; he was a good conversationalist.
I was very pleased he was able to participate in our small Philhaven reunion held last year, on May 22, 2019, here at Landis homes where I live.
I will watch for information regarding the Celebration of your Dad's life which will be held at a later time.
May your happy memories give you solace, and may the Lord give you, and your families, comfort and peace.
Blessings,

“ Mark, Wendy, Melissa, Andrew, Christopher, Tim, Ronnie and Miranda: Donald and Helen were our wonderful friends of 40 plus years. Donald was a man of integrity, whose life reflected his love for Jesus. A Bible scholar whose Sunday Schools lessons were enjoyed by many over the years. He was kind, compassionate, caring and a gentleman always. He loved his family, they were first in his life. A laugh we often shared with Don and Helen was: if you needed surgery, Don would put you to sleep and Helen would wake you up!

He will be missed and our love and sympathy go to all the family.
