“ Don was such a major part of my childhood, and I'm so grateful for him, Dottie and the girls and the kindness they showed me. I always loved going for Sunday drives with the family where he would pile us into the back of his pickup truck and take us for beautiful scenic drives. His humor was unforgettable. Even many years later, some of the memories I have of him still make me laugh out loud. Thank you Don for being a wonderful man and for always being so welcoming to me. Sending love to you and to your beautiful family.

“ My dearest Uncle Donnie or as my kids called him "Uncie". Such great memories of you as a child and into my adulthood. Remembering going for Sunday drives when I stayed at the house, being the photographer at my wedding, bringing dilly bars for the kids almost every Saturday. But most of all being a loving and thoughtful man. I will miss you tremendously. Love to Aunt Dottie and the girls. Until we meet again.
