“ RIP Aunt Dolly 🥹 I will remember all the times you spoiled me when I came over when we lived beside you and Uncle Harv. I'm so glad I went to Bingo with you so many times, we had so many Great laughs n fun. I enjoyed going with you. Keep on yelling BINGO and win the Jackpot in heaven... Give Uncle Harv hugs for me. Love ya always 💕💕

“ I remember going to the family reunion with your niece Lenora. I had a great time meeting you and the family. You seem like a very nice lady. I wish I would of got to known you more. But you will be very missed. My thoughts and prayers go out to the family.

“ I remember last year at the family reunion and she called me over and said who's that guy that's sitting with you, and I was like oh, he's my fiancé, and she's like tell him to get his ass over here so I can meet him, I introduced him to aunt dolly and she said “oh, he's a keeper, he's mighty handsome” and I said thank you aunt dolly, I love you

“ My most treasured memories of Dolly come from when we lived next door . We only had our son Chris at that time. Dolly was always there to help out with babysitting and doing what ever she could for myself and her nephew. We spent many nights talking on our front porches at night as all the kids played on the sidewalk. When I visited her in the rehab center she brought up all her good memories we shared living as neighbors. Many of those that I had forgotten till she reminded me. I was so impressed how she remembered so much. We all loved Aunt Dolly.

If I wasn't at my own home growing up, you could always find me at yours. Either playing on the porch with the girls when we were younger or getting into trouble with them when we were older. My heart is heavy as I write this, you will be missed. I love you!!
