“ My Memories of Aunt Dot Wonderful picnics on the back porch, ordering from the Co-Ed down town once a week, giving ice cubes to her dog Penny, and teaching me how to crochet when I was in fifth grade. Even though I was a left hander she managed to teach me right handed and knowing reading the directions from a book was difficult, she would simplify them on paper and crochet me a sample. Aunt Dot was a great lady and i will hold her dear to my heart..
