“ What I remember most about Dwight was his excellent skills shooting pool. He could almost call every single shot. One thing that stands out, he never thought about himself and would go over and above to help a friend. Even when he was in the hospital, he made sure he sent me a text wishing me luck on my first day on my new job. He brought such laughter and fun and will be surely missed by all.

“ You will always hold a special place in my heart; for reasons my dear friend you know. I will always miss our visits on my weekly cookie run. You would swing open the door with that big smile and those rosy cheeks that I always had to pinch. You loved my cookies to the point that on one occasion, your favorite cookies did not meet your expectations, you made me feel so guilty that I had to go and re-bake them and always with the cherry on top. I thank God that I was able to see you and spend time with you on our last cookie run. I remember being fearful that the hospital would not let you have them and you answered me, bring on the cookies. There are far too many memories I could share but they will be forever in my heart. Your wit, humor and good-nature were only a fraction of the greatest gifts you shared with those that had the privilege to know you. As I was writing this, my mentor, Ken stopped by and seen I was teary eyed and was kind enough to share with me something that gave me such comfort and peace. While in the hospital, you had mentioned to him on several occasions that I was a gem. With all he was going through, he thought of me so fondly. As stated in the Bible, “God knows we grieve, he understands our sorrow, and comforts us. He does not promise to preserve us from grief but to help us through it.” Until we meet again.

“ As we often said, you can't choose your family and for the most part, you can't choose your neighbors...but you can choose who among your neighbors will be your friends. Dwight was my first choice. I know he'd want some humor and a sports analogy. Dwight, you've left us too soon and put us behind the 8-ball; however we're comforted by the life you lived and you truly shot a hole-in-one. Miss you! Kenny (King)

Dear Nancy and family, I am sorry that I can't be with you as you remember my dear nephew Dwight. I remember talking, sharing and laughing together as we said good-bye at his Dad and my brother's funeral. I remember all of the times we shared the joys of family as he was growing up and even though distance separated us, we were always family. I am sorry that his life was cut short by cancer, but I know that he is in Our Lord's loving arms and resting in the same peace that we all share in the Body of Christ. May our Lord surround you at this time with His love. Yours in Christ's Love, Uncle Norm
