

E. Ann Meyer

September 10, 1926 - August 27, 2023

E. Ann Meyer, 96, of Lebanon passed away on Sunday August 27, 2023 at Juniper Village. She was the wife of the late Maurice M. Meyer, Jr., MD, who passed away in 1987.

E. Ann was born in Harrisburg on September 10, 1926 to the late Harry and Ruth (McCauley) Shellhammer, Highspire, PA. She was an OR nurse, a nurse for her husband's practice and a therapeutic massage therapist. She was a member of Salem Lutheran Church in Lebanon, where she was a Sunday School teacher for many years, and on several church committees. She was involved with the women's medical auxiliary. She enjoyed making miniatures, making paper Moravian stars, sewing, painting, woodworking, redoing furniture, and working with stained glass. She built a dollhouse with her talents.

Surviving are her children, Lisa Meyer (Eric Imhoff) of Lebanon, Jonathan Meyer (Kathleen O'Brien Meyer) of Cornwall, grandchildren, McCauley Meyer, PhD. (Stephanie Collins, PhD) of Waltham Massachusetts, Sara Clark of St. Louis, and a brother Burton Shellhammer of York. She was preceded in death by her son, David Mark Meyer, and sisters, Lydia Powers and Judith Schwalm. She is also survived by her late son's partner, Sharon Clark of St. Louis, and nieces and nephews.

Services will be held on September 9, at 1:00 at Salem Lutheran Church, 119 N. 8th Street Lebanon. Interment will be held privately.

In lieu of flowers. Ann's family asks a donation be made to Salem Lutheran Church, Lebanon, PA.

*It was such a pleasure watching Ann and our mom at church bazaars and Mother's Day banquets over the decades. Ann always had a ready smile and word of comfort for all she met. Her quick wit and kindness were so apparent! I will forever miss our porch chats with Ann, Lisa and my sis we so looked forward to for the last few years. Rest well in His arms dear Ann, a job well done on this His earthly world.
In Sympathy,
