“ I won't ever forget when I was in 11th grade Went to see him in the VA and I told him how I was going to dc to see the White House and he told me to kick Obama in the but for me and him and I just laughed. I miss you so much great grandpa. I am so sorry that I you didn't get to meet Kalie. I will make sure to tell her stories about you.

“ My dear sweet Earl dear neighbor and good friend. My heart is sad but I am also happy to feel he is at rest and he and Mary are sitting on a swing. Bob and I have great memories of both Mary and Earl and we could never had nicer neighbors. After Mary's passing I chatted on a lot of occasions with Earl and we always had a good laugh.
He will always be remembered in my heart. Deepest condolences to his children, grandchildren and great grandchildren.
