“ I worked with Earl for 31 years. We became very close early on, sharing so many personal things that only very few knew. We trusted each other and he told me many times I was like his little brother. And he felt like my big brother. He Loved his family with all his heart, Alice, Lisa, Marie and grandkids. His laugh was unforgettable. His heart was bigger than his gruff exterior seemed to be. My prayers go out to his family and friends, which he had many. You will be missed my brother. RIP and until we meet again!

“ Junior was so special to us. One of our fondest memories of him was when he visited us in New York. We got to take him to an Army vs Air Force football game at West Point Military Academy. Air Force won. What a great day!
He was always there in our lives to guide us and protect us.... And I know he will be able to do it even better now from Heaven, but he will be so missed.
