“ Childhood memories on the farm with Eddie and his family keep flooding my mind in these last few days. One of my favorite was riding to VBS and of the games was playing “King of the Hill”. Prayers for you and your family are being sent. I’m unable to travel from Ohio to attend the services.

So sorry in your tragic loss of your husband/father/brother. There seem no right words to say at times like this. May you all feel all the love and prayers being lifted for you through out this community and beyond. If there is anything we can do in the days ahead, please reachout to your family and friends who are here for all of you. Will miss the waves and smiles as drove past daughters house in truck or on tractor. It is okay to cry, as the tears roll down ones cheek its all the love that overflows. Hugs, love and prayers to all.
