“ I loved Eileen so much. Her and Joe were so loving and always made me feel at home. They always kept up with my bowling and made me feel like the bowler in the World. Nothing was better than one of her hugs. Love you, Cassandra LaCour

“ To Wendy and family

I got to know Eileen when I took care of her husband Joe and her brother Gary. Eileen was a very loving and devoted wife and sister. She was a special person and will be missed by all who knew her.

May you find comfort in knowing that she is in a better place now and has been reunited with her husband and brother.

My deepest sympathies go out to you and your family. Eileen was a good, kind and compassionate person and I was honored to know her

I got to be Eileen's caregiver for a year, she was the most sweetest and loving person. She would always call me girl bc she would forget my name. I have so many great memories of her. I was lucky to be in her life. You will be missed 😭
