“ To the entire Boyer family. Our most heartfelt sympathy at the loss of your beloved mother, grandmother, sister and aunt. Sometimes we find it hard to say "Thy Will Be Done" but God knows best. If there is anything we can do to make your burden lighter, please don't hesitate to call on us. “ Donna, Brett and families- So sorry for your loss. Eleanor and Charlie taught my children so much and we all loved them for all the joy they brought to our lives. They were more than our neighbors- they were family. Eleanor always had time to play games and her door was always open for my children. She will always hold a special place in our hearts.
