“ I remember our family visiting the Bachem family every Sunday afternoon. Betsy, as the oldest, always had responsibilities taking care of her siblings. She always was pleasant, seemed nothing every really bothered her. I'm happy that she enjoyed married life, loved playing golf, living at The Villages, until it was time to "come home".

“ I remember Betsy as a cousin and playmate at family picnics and vacations. She always joined in games. May she rest in peace.

“ The oldest of the Bachem Tribe will be missed by her family & friends. So many fun memories from childhood till now. She just might have left an unfinished puzzle & some sweets in the freezer! Lol. We love you Sissy...you put up a good fight for so many years. Say hello to the rest of our Tribe. Sister Donna & BIL Joe!❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️
