“ Our condolences to the family of Betty Lewis. We got to know Betty when we started visiting her friend Grace, at the Hostetter Greenhouse, about 8 years ago.

She would always greet us with a big heartwarming smile. As a matter of fact, she smiled a lot!

She loved her family and Irish heritage. When I would play the keyboard, her first request would always be, "When Irish eyes are Smiling." And of course she loved hearing the Notre Dame fight song too!

She was always so appreciative of our visits and music. When she squeezed my hand I could feel her warmth and love. We will miss her dearly. But we find comfort in knowing that our "good byes" are not the end. I look forward to some day seeing her again in heaven, but this time there will be no wheel chair!

Love from Susan and Jeff Taylor
