“ I was very sad to hear the news of Eloise's passing. When working at the Lebanon Community Library, I simply knew she was a former librarian and that she and her husband were dedicated patrons. It was only when I got to work at LVC, I'm the Access Services (Circulation, Interlibrary Loan and Archives) Librarian there, that I realized she was an LVC librarian. It was such an honor to know both she and Max. The librarians at LVC are proud to carry on Eloise's library legacy. The library staff sends sympathy and prayers at this time of great sadness.
