“ Dear Heller Family,

We send our warmest thoughts to you upon the death of Mr.Heller. We were honored to serve Zion Lutheran Church and witness Heller's gift for ministering the Word. He was a devoted and passionate teacher and church leader. Even welcoming me and our newborn baby to the class he taught! We had dinners at his home lovingly prepared by Elva, full of stories, jokes and baseball cards. Special memories! We pray for Gods comfort to sustain you and His peace to fill you as you miss him.

“ I will never find a better card playing partner than Elvin and I will miss our games immensely. I know the staff at Country Meadows will miss hearing us play because raucous laughter could often be heard, (and also sometimes loud arguing over the score, all in good fun, of course). Elvin won the last game we got to play, even though I was way ahead in the beginning, the usual course of events! My heart is heavy with the loss of Elvin, but light in knowing he is now happily reunited with Elva.
