“ She was my wonderful friend, neighbor, and my adoptive mother and grandmother to my children. I am so happy I was able to spend time with her sitting on my porch discussing life and family. She will be greatly missed by me and my family. My condolences to Eric and Kevin and their families.

“ Ernestine was a bright spot of each Sunday morning when she came to worship. She greeted those around her with her special smile and would often tell a story of her grandchildren or great-grandchildren reflecting her love for her family and commitment to being present or available to them. She shared a deep love for and trust in God. What I especially appreciated was her practical and engaging faith that gave her a resilience in challenges and hope for what was yet to come. May the blessings of eternity grant her peace in God's promises to her.
