“ My best memories of Estella are the visits I made as Visiting Pastor of Gravel Hill United Methodist Church. I was always impressed with her wonderful sense of humor--she loved to laugh. I'm certain that she was not always feeling like laughing, but she was one who gave a lift to your day no matter what your mood. Heaven will be richer for her presence.

“ Jackie, so sorry to hear of your Mom's passing. I have so many memories of Stella, my Mom and Aunt Esther. Stella gave me my first hair cut. Your Dad was a character and your Mom was so sweet. What a great pair! You have our deepest sympathy. I'm sure my Mom and Esther welcomed her into heaven. Love to all.
