“ Don and Family. I was so saddened to learn of Ethel's passing. I still remember how she welcomed me and my girls for your 50th anniversary only two months after Dick's passing and she couldn't do enough for us. She was a super lady and will be missed by all. Heavens are now eating good they just welcomes a wonderful cook. Fly Hi Dear Angel.....

“ I will always hold fond memories of Ethel. We shared the same name, tho' she never used a 'nickname' as I have. But we always shared a hug and 'I love you' with each other each time we met. Her faith was ever constant, and I'm sure Heaven welcomed her HOME. Her physical presence will make a huge void in the lives of all who were touched by this beautiful lady. To Don, Lisa, Lori, Sarah and Ethel's family, I extend our most sincere and heartfelt sympathy. You now share a Guardian Angel who will watch over all from Heaven as she did while on earth. With much love and prayers, Sis'n Ralph
