“ Very sad to hear of this...i grew up across the street from Gene on campmeeting road, on the hill where my parents built a home when i was 5..Gene walked up to our home quite often ...my best memories were playing baseball in our yard...he was well liked by our family and my mother..my most recent memory was seeing him at the Hotel Hershey, where i worked, when he came with his brother Richard and his sister to the coffee shop...what a kind, caring man.....jane moyer krick

*Thank you, Jane! I have very fond memories of your father... he was lots of fun and had good energy... and, a BIG heart!
I miss Gene very much - he was a very special guy. However he is in a much better place now.
Thanks, again, for your kind note! Sincerely, June*
