“Forgive me for calling Evan "Loby" but as very close friends throughout our childhood, that is what everyone called him. I have so many memories of our time together (not always getting in trouble, by the way), that, if I would share them on this posting, it would be too long to read. After we entered into adulthood (and I left Pennsylvania for my career endeavors), we drifted apart with our different lives; however, I still cherish all of those happy memories of camping, playing, exploring, and experimenting in the 1960s and 1970s.

I extend my condolences and best regards to the Fansler family.

“On behalf of the whole extended Krum family, our condolences to Merv and all of Loby's brothers. Growing up in Bellegrove was a very special time and place to be in the 60's and early 70's. Being neighbors, seemed we more often than not were in each other's back yards for football or whiffleball games. Loby (who knows the spelling) was often like an extended brother to me because he and my brother Ed were together more than they weren't. Rest in Peace brother.
