

Evelyn Bomgardner

February 13, 1939 - August 8, 2025

Evelyn Buck Bomgardner of Annville, PA went to be with the Lord on the 8th of August, 2025.

Evelyn was born on February 13th, 1939 to the late Allen and Lizzie (Moyer) Buck. She was the oldest of six children. She attended school in a one room school house on Hoffer Road in Annville.

At the age of 19, she met the love of her life, LeRoy on a blind date. They would often joke that they were both blind ever since. They were married at the Bellegrove United Methodist Church on April 6th, 1958. Together they raised a family, tended to their dairy farm, and served in church ministry. She taught Sunday school many years, taught with A.R.E.A., Annville-Cleona Release Time Education Association. She also worked at KXCF corp, The Lebanon Exposition Center, and Royer's flowers. She enjoyed her weekly Ladies bible study, her monthly farm women meetings, working in her garden, and working on puzzles.

Her greatest accomplishment were her children and grandchildren whom she adored and poured her life into.

She encouraged everyone to experience God's love and to see him in everything. One of her favorite verses was Matthew 6:33, " Seek ye first the kingdom of God and all his righteousness shall be added unto you." Evelyn lives on not only in her eternal home, but in the lives of her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Evelyn is survived by her daughters, Robin Heiselman of Hershey, Melody

Good of Annville, Valerie and her husband William Lutz of Annville.

Grandchildren, Matthew, Amanda, Jordon, Noah, Tyler, Cyndi, Alex and Riley, 12 great grandchildren, and siblings, Miriam Kurtz, Brenda Davies and Harry Buck.

She was preceded in death by her husband, LeRoy Bomgardner, daughter, Cindy Kern, sister, Marlene Massar, brother, Alvin Buck, and a son-in-law, Michael Good.

Private services will be at the convenience of the family. Donations can be made to: Hospice For All Seasons, 280 S Hill Dr, Grantville, PA 17028.
