“ My heartfelt condolences to Evelyn's family and friends. She was a feisty ole girl and will be sorely missed at our family reunions. Many good memories and all worth many a'laugh and she loved to laugh, too. I gave her a ride to the flea market at our first family reunion and we parked next to a ditch with running water.... I attempted to help her out of the passenger side and she looked at me seriously and said, "do you know what I'd like to do right now?" I said, "no, what?" She said, "push you right into that ditch!" I loved her ever since.... I know Jesse and Buck are happy to see her.... party on, Evelyn, and I know Dad wants some of that famous dirt cake..... RIP. Keeping your family and friends in my thoughts, prayers, hugs, and cares.
