“ Writing this post is the hardest thing I have ever had to do because it is for my one and only brother. Jr. I ❤️ U more than words can express. My heart is broken because you took a huge piece of it with you when you left. I held your hand and watched you as you took your last breath. I will remember this for the rest of my life You've been with me all of my life and I still can't believe you are gone. You have been a beacon of light and the glue that has kept your 4 sisters together. No one and I mean no one will EVER understand the relationship and unbreakable bond, we had except the 5 of us. Some may have even been jealous. It doesn't matter. The missing part of my heart will be there until I see you again in heaven. Your work here is done and God is pleased. He took you home. Gone but Never Ever forgotten you sister. Forever your sister Paula !!!

“ My sincere condolences go out to my extended family. Although I haven't seen him in a while, Cousin Junior was always kind to me and my family. I enjoyed reconnecting with him on socials and sharing our love of the Baltimore Ravens and Christ. I will keep his lovely wife, children, and family in my prayers.

May the family find peace and comfort 🌸

Love always,

LaTrécia Frieson (Anthony; Pike's daughter)

We used to call him June in Baltimore. We connected on FB last year. He told me my late husband, Rickey Young was his best friend. That really touched my heart. After that conversation, he shared inspirational videos, prayers and thoughts. I know he will be sorely missed, but I have a feeling that he had a close relationship with the Lord, and that he will be alright. My deepest condolences to his lovely wife, his daughter and grandkids, and his sister, family and friends. May he forever rest in heavenly peace.

“ My heart weighs heavy today, to say good by to a friend who's light for the Lord shined so brightly that it touched so many lives, (including mine). Ezra was a beautiful person inside and out. Loved the Lord with all his heart, loved his family with all his heart, loved his friends and brothers and sisters in Christ with all his heart, he just was a beautiful soul. I feel blessed that me and my husband got the chance to know him. We are only here for a short time. It is about the lives we touch, and he touched many. He will be missed but not forgotten, so it's good by for now my friend, but not forever. I will see you again, but there will be no tears of sorrow but tears of joy. Sandy, I know this is a great loss to you and the family. My heart, prayers, and condolences go out to you and the family. I pray for comfort and the healing of your heart. All my love, Scott & Sheila

Ezra was a kind and faithful man who loved his wife, his family and his friends. My heartfelt prayers are with his wife, Sandy, and all those who knew and loved him. May the Lord offer you a measure of His comfort and peace during this time. May Ezra's life be remembered and celebrated . . . trusting in the assurance that he is with his Savior and we will, one day, see him again.
