

Frank J. R. Vega

October 15, 1961 - December 19, 2020

On December 19, 2020, Frank Jesús Reynaldo Vega Obregón, age 59, victoriously entered his eternal home, free of pain and finally in the presence of the One he loved most. He was the husband of Melissa (Meldau) Vega. Frank was born on October 15, 1961, Puerto Cortés, Honduras, to Fernando and Petrona Estela (Obregón) Vega. He was very close to his siblings as he grew up, which is a bond that remained strong until the end. They shared wonderful memories of a childhood poor in money, yet rich in love and adventure. Frank was a talented soccer player who traveled throughout Central America as a young man, playing the game he loved. He earned a degree in industrial electrical systems and subsequently worked at the Central American Bank for Economic Integration in Tegucigalpa, Honduras, before emigrating to the United States.

Frank gave his heart to Jesus shortly after arriving in the US. From that moment on, he lived his life to honor his Lord and Savior. Frank wholeheartedly and unreservedly answered God's call to minister, although he had harbored ambitions of professional goals and plans of financial security. He gladly gave all of that up for the privilege of the high calling. In August 1989, he met his wife in West Palm Beach, Florida, at the church pastored by Rev. Sidney Grant. From his days as a Bible Institute and ministry student in West Palm Beach and Indiantown, Florida, to youth ministry in Idaho Falls, Idaho, to pastoring and teaching Bible Institute in Lebanon, Pennsylvania, to ministering in Seguin and Houston, Texas, Frank's deepest longing was to honor His King. He exemplified the love of God throughout a life of sacrificial service.

Frank loved deeply, forgave easily, and did not know how to hold a grudge. He enjoyed a good play on words and would often craft puns spontaneously, much to the delight (and, at times, the dismay) of his wife. His smile and laugh were contagious because they came from a genuinely loving heart. He will be missed more than words can express. But his legacy will live on through his children, grandchildren, and all those whose lives he touched.

Frank's mantra, well known to those who sat under his ministry, was, "El Señor es bueno. El Señor es muy bueno. El Señor es extremadamente bueno." (The Lord is good. The Lord is very good. The Lord is extremely good.) Throughout his difficult and painful illness these past 15 months, Frank never stopped believing in the supreme goodness of God. He is now experiencing that goodness first hand. We can only imagine the intense, breathtaking joy of his homecoming.

In addition to his wife, Frank is survived by his four children, Alcia, wife of Kevin Stellar of Lebanon, Karina, fiancée of Steven Rosario of Lebanon, and Elizabeth & Elijah of York; his three grandchildren, Ishmael, Channing, and Iselle, all of Lebanon; his mother, Petrona Estela Obregón of Seguin, Texas; his three siblings, Hector Vega of Athens, Alabama, Maribel (Jaime) Dominguez of Seguin, Texas, and Aleyda Obregón (Marisol) of Hallandale Beach, Florida; his nieces, Alxia and Saray Dominguez of Seguin, Texas, and Lucia Vega of Phoenix, Arizona; and his nephew, Abraham Escobar of Savannah, Georgia. He was preceded in death by his father, Fernando Vega; and his brother, Fernando Vega, Jr.

Final arrangements will be handled by the Kreamer & Lum Funeral Home & Crematory. Due to COVID-19, the funeral service, conducted by Rev. Sidney Grant, will be private. Interment will be at Wenger's Meeting House Cemetery, Jonestown. The service will be live streamed for all those who wish to celebrate Frank's life on Wednesday, December 23, at 2:00 p.m. All who wish can attend via the livestream which can be accessed at www.kreamerlumfh.co pastor frank I met him while I was dying in the hospital and he came and explain to me the plan of salvation. after leaving the hospital I started going to his church and I can't forget how happy he was to help carry me with the wheelchair into the church which had like 4 steps. I could tell I was not a burden to carry for him. I love you vega family, may God give you strength.

Our dear Pastor Frank, A true man of God who loved all his sheep and wouldn't mind going an extra mile for them. Remembering, all the times he would be there for my grandfather Hno Luis Perez during his sickness. Those powerful sermons he gave always left you meditating for the glory of God. We LOVE you all Vega family. May the Holy Spirit confort you all and strengthen you.

“ El pastor Frank Vega, amaba a Dios por sobre todas las cosas! el y su esposa nos abrieron las puertas de su casa a mi hermano y a mi, unos completos desconocidos, en momentos de desamparo y de mayor necesidad, su amor por Dios lo impulsaba a amar y dolerse por su projimo, lo vi llorar e implorar por las ovejas perdidas, hizo todo en su poder y capacidad de trasmitir el amor y temor a Dios.

Siempre fue un angel enviado por Dios para ser ejemplo a seguir, El esta entre los eleguidos,

El me devolvio la fe en Dios y en la humanidad.
