“ I met Frank in my early 20’s. He helped me in life more than he could ever know. He taught me a lot, gave great advice and had a unique perspective on life and the arts. His intelligence, honesty, and generosity was well known and gained him acceptance across diverse social classes. I looked up to Frank a lot. The world lost a treasure, that’s for sure. He will be missed.
Love ya Frank!!

“ A memory page has been created on Facebook for Frank for friends and loved ones to post and share pictures, stories, funny and witty anecdotes of Frank, and other cherished memories. FRANK WAS SO LOVED BY SO MANY, so please share and post picture, stories, music and visit often as the site will remain active for as long as he is in our hearts which will probably be forever. If you click on his profile face pic in the circle pic on the page header, a short slideshow of Frank's favorite music with pictures and images and quotes he would find amusing are now posted. The slideshow only last for about 24 hours but will be reposted repeatedly with slightly different pictures and images. Also many of the clip will also be posted on the page in following days. Feel free to post pictures images with song clips or song titles and they can be added to slideshows to come...

It only took Frank 52 (really 53) years to etch himself into our lives, but he honestly will never leave the hearts or memories of so so so many.

It's Frank's birthday let's all raise a Heineken to toast the great man and good life that he lived.

Happy Birthday Frank you are so dearly loved and missed, but never ever could we possibly forget all our adventures and memories of you, nor do ever want to. We will send you our love forever from this side to the other... Please feel free to haunt us... So many miss you dearly....

“ I am at a loss for words. Frank always had a way of putting a smile on my face with his sideways humor and Scooby-Doo-like laugh. We grew up together and experienced many of the wonders of teenage life together. Rest in Peace and I will be there one day to collect my "Two Silly Bucks".
