“ Uncle Frank you were the patriarch of the Wing Family; I think most will agree. You will be missed more than words can convey. Each of us has our own personal memories with you. It is so difficult to let go, but we know we must. We will be together again sooner than later, since it is said that life on Earth is but a moment in time in heaven. Give my love to năi nai, mom/dad & Hank and everyone that already crossed over. I'm guessing they were crowded around the Gate to the Kingdom of Heaven, waiting to welcome you home. I'm going to miss you so much and promised to keep close tabs on Aunt Isi. 💔💔💔💔

“ To Frank's family,
It does not matter how you became a part of Franks life.
i knew him for 45 years.
I remember early on talking to Isi about the cruise and meeting Frank;
she said "this is a good one".
they were good to each other.
To life,
Sue wing

“ Everyone should be blessed with a genuine friend like Frank. Roger and I were fortunate to call him our friend for many years. We were also very lucky to be guests at his delicious Chinese dinners, always a good time. He will be missed. Rest In Peace my friend.

“ Uncle Frank, Our pillar. Websters defines this as a firm upright support for a superstructure; Our Wing family. Always... his crew cut hair, warm smile and gentle laughter. As a child he was the welcome, loving presence and has remained so through the years. He will be missed terribly but never forgotten; forever a memory that makes us smile. I pretty much expect him to greet us at the pearly gate.
With Love, Susan Wing Geberth

“ Frank was a caring & loving person. Made many dinners to get lots of people together and enjoy all the company. Golf was always on his mind, played in cold weather, that's how much he loved his golf. We will all miss Frankie!
