“ When mother was not mobile, I had been doing her hair and when I went up one day it was obvious that her hair was cut. And when I asked her who did it, she said "your brothers." And I said "you're kidding" and she said "no, Tim was on one side, and Fred was on the other, measuring and cutting my hair." Her haircut looked good, and I could not believe her when she told me that it was my brothers.

You will be missed Fred. You were loved by many of the dialysis patients and staff at PSHMC.

Rest easy buddy. You are free.
