

Frederick Rutter Hofnagle

January 17, 1931 - December 16, 2020

Frederick Rutter Hofnagle was born on January 17th, 1931 and died on December 16th, 2020 at StoneRidge Retirement Center in Myerstown Pa. Frederick was the only child to Edna May Rutter from Jonestown Pa. He worked and retired from Bethlehem Steel having over 40 years of service. Frederick loved the outdoors; Hunting, Fishing, Riding bike, and walks through the woods. He was a very good at skiing and ice skating. He loved to talk to people and to share stories with them on his journey through life. He also loved taking Fly fishing trips to various places but his favorite was to the Stony creek in the blue mountains with his only son Fred.

Frederick was the husband of Stella Tropasso who died on January 5th 2019, they were married 65 years. As well as Fred Thomas Hofnagle, Frederick is also survived by two Grandchildren, Brian Hofnagle and Chad Hofnagle also two Great Grandchildren, Connor and Savannah.

Frederick will be missed very much and remembered always. A memorial will be held in The Spring.

Tribute Wall

RJ

“ Sorry to hear of your Dad passing Fred. Prayers and blessings to him and your Mother. I've not forgotten the early childhood memories of him, your Mom and yourself. Snap

Raphael Arnick Jr. - January 07, 2021 at 08:23 PM