Irene, I so enjoyed the video highlighting Gary's life! We had the greatest respect for him and appreciated his friendship while living in Avon Park. He was such a blessing to so many! You and your family are in my prayers.

This is a year later. We are Gary's cousins, Dawn, Joyce, and Brenda Luppold, daughters of Carl Luppold, living in Augusta, GA. Just learned of Gary's death. We know he knew the Lord and look forward to seeing him in heaven, ever to be with the Lord. Our live goes out to you, Irene, and your sons.

I meant our Love goes out to you. We remember visiting your house that David built or finished when we were 9 or so years old, Dawn and I. A much later visit in the late seventies at a home we had never been to and it was Thanksgiving weekend and you served us leftover turkey.

David, my cousin, lived to be 85 years. Carl, my dad, lived to be 84, dying in August of 2004. They are fellowshipping in heaven now. Praise the Lord!!

“ I shared the joy of being one of the two grandpas of Ariana and Dominic. Gary was that other granddad and he was a great one. What beautiful memories we have of him. Trust all those who grieve will lean hard on our loving Lord!
