“ Wow, where to begin? I've know Gary since we were kids in the same neighborhood. Even though we were a few yrs apart, we still hung out together thru high school and beyond. The apartment on Cumberland St, the one on 10th St, then on to WaterWorks. The road trips to concerts, the parties at the playground in Waterworks, the nights in the Red Maple Inn. I was your best man at your wedding, had my 1st bachelor party at your house. There isn't enough space here to begin to remember it all. Rest in Peace my Friend. Now you can go back to pounding the drums as much as you want!

“ As kids Gary was king of wheelies riding his Stingray bike for blocks with ease. After he outgrew the bikes it was playing drums and was very good at that also. He was definitely the Fonz of our day. I remember the day I went to visit him and how proud he was to introduce me to his and Linda's baby daughter. So many good times and memories.

RIP Gary
