“ I fondly remember summertime with my Uncle George and cousins in Quentin, swimming, riding bikes, eating cow tails & chik-o-stiks, going to softball games, getting pizza & ice cream (peanut butter ripple my favorite), family get togethers. Our dad's are brothers (Uncle Jim). So much time has passed and we're so grown with families of our own, but remember those idyllic days. My heart goes out to you in your time of mourning and I send you prayers of comfort and strength. To my Aunts, for the loss of their brother. To my cousins who've lost a fabulous uncle. With love, Allyson (Fies) Manis
