

Gerald Thomas "Jerry" Kotenko

November 3, 1944 - October 31, 2020

Gerald Thomas "Jerry" Kotenko, 75, of Annville, passed away peacefully on Saturday, October 31, 2020 at the Lebanon Valley Home.

Born in Detroit, Michigan on November 3, 1944, he was the son of the late Frederick P. and Margaret (Shepard) Kotenko. Jerry worked in horse racing as a Thoroughbred Jockey, and he raced into his 50's. He shared the love of fishing with his brothers Bob and Fred. When together, they always enjoyed each other's company. He loved to travel within the United States, especially visiting his daughter Angie in California. Jerry enjoyed spending time with his daughter Susan and her family. He especially liked playing with his grandchildren when they were young.

Surviving are daughters Susan M. Malampy, wife of Christopher of Chester Springs, PA, Angela M. Siegel, wife of Alan of Kelseyville, CA; grandchildren Lauren, Rachel and Christopher Malampy; an identical twin brother Robert S. Kotenko, husband of Kathy of Palmyra; and two nephews and a niece. He was preceded in death by a brother Frederick C. Kotenko.

Services will be held at the convenience of the family. In lieu of flowers, please make a contribution in Jerry's memory to a charity of your choice.
