“ Dear Cousins, Fred, Randy and Scott, I am so sorry for your loss of your Mother! Just a few words about My Aunt Gerry: She was my "NEAT" Aunt. What I mean by that is, her house was always in order, very clean and when I visited her, she was always cleaning something! I have to admit, when I was a child I was a little afraid of her because I seen her keep you boys in order! As I grew into an adult I realized I didn't have to be afraid of her, she was a sweet, kind Aunt! My Mom and I would stop to visit her at the house over the years. We would reminisce about things and laugh! It was amazing how Mom and Gerry were like twins! She would be wearing some clothes or show us new outfits from Boscov's and Mom bought the same clothes or outfits at Boscov's and they weren't even together when they bought them! Mom, Aunt Gerry and I, always had a good visit! When she moved to Cornwall Manor, Mom and I visited her several times, my sister Cindy went with sometimes. As her Alzheimers got worse, our visits got fewer, it was hard on my Mom. Mom and I visited her last year and that was our last visit. We were suppose to stay in her room to visit because of Covid protocols, and she kept running away from us, she wanted to be out in the big gathering room and she pushed her chair out there with her feet. Mom followed, then I followed and then the nurses sort of gave us heck and said we had to visit in her room. When we left her that day she followed us out of the room and wanted to leave with us. A lady patient at the home knew Aunt Gerry and Mom from school and she asked Gerry who my Mom was and she was trying to figure it out and then the lady asked her in a loud voice, Gerry who is that, you know who that is and Aunt Gerry answered, "that's my sister"! She cried as we were leaving and Mom and I cried as we were walking out! That's our last memory of my Aunt Gerry! She is at peace now and where she wants to be, with her husband Uncle Vince, Grandma, Pappy Resh and Aunt Fay! I will miss you Aunt Gerry! Until we meet again, Rest In Peace! Love, Thoughts and Prayers go out to my three Cousins and everyone in their Families, Debra Morris 🍷🥺🙏🙏🙏

“ Fred, Randy, and Scott-

I'm so sorry to read of your mom's passing. I know that her journey with Alzheimer's was a long and difficult road for you all. Long after we all moved away from the neighborhood, I enjoyed talking with her whenever I'd see her out and about. She was always friendly and amusing when we chatted and was always smiling. I have no doubt that her smile will be missed by many. Please know that I keep you and your families in my prayers.
