

Gerard L. Harclerode

September 27, 1941 - December 4, 2018

Gerard L. Harclerode, 77, of Cleona, passed away on Tuesday December 4, 2018 at WellSpan Good Samaritan Hospital. He was the husband of Carolyn J. (Gordon) Harclerode, with whom he celebrated 55 wonderful years in marriage this past June.

Gerard was born in Everett, PA on September 27, 1941 to the late Brady and Velma (Foor) Harclerode. He was a 1959 graduate of Everett High School. As an avid antique car lover, he was a member of the AACA and Hershey Region since 1979. He is remembered by many for the 15+ years of coaching little league baseball in Cleona. With the giving nature of helping others, Gerard always made you smile, telling tall tales and jokes. He and his wife enjoyed camping year round.

Surviving in addition to his wife are his children, Stephen Harclerode (Linda Thompson), Cherie Tobias (John), Lorrie Heller (Douglas), grandchildren, Samantha Schroeder (Bradley), Kevin Sholly, Karley Harclerode, Shauna Edwards, Douglas Heller, Jr., Leah Heller, a great grandchild, Wynne Heller, along with his siblings, Bob & Carol, Terry & Prudence, Mike & Margie, Shirley, Linda, and Judy & John. He was preceded in death by his siblings, Chip and Patsy.

A funeral service will be held on Saturday December 8, 2018 at 1PM from Kreamer Funeral Home and Crematory Inc., 618 E. Main Street, Annville. Interment will be private. There will be a viewing held on Friday evening, December 7, 2018 from 6PM-8PM at the funeral home and again on Saturday afternoon from 12PM-1PM.

“ Carolyn, my prayers are with you and your family in this difficult time. May you find comfort in the memories of your love and lives together and your children. God bless you!

I remember the great times Gerard and I had riding horses in Everett, and those crazy conversation together with other friends at Reed's Restaurant! What a great person to have had as a friend.
