

Gladys A. Wampler

December 27, 1925 - June 18, 2022

Gladys A. Wampler, 96, of Palmyra passed away Saturday, June 18, 2022 at Londonderry Village. She was the wife of the late Harold E. Wampler who passed away in 1980.

Born in Mt. Zion she was a daughter of the late John B. and Elva M. (Royer) Lentz. Gladys worked alongside her late husband on the family farm and was a member of the Annville Church of the Brethren where she was involved with the quilting group, kitchen committee and the Sunday School class. Gladys was very family oriented and was a great cook and baker, loved her family and was a very special lady and a great mother-in-law to Sharon, Lynn and Lon.

She is survived by her two daughters Barbara A., wife of Lynn Sterner of Manheim and Kaye W., wife of Lon Anderson of Harrisburg; 10 grandchildren; 24 great-grandchildren; six great-great-grandchildren and her daughter-in-law Sharon L. Wampler of Lebanon. Gladys was preceded in death by her son Dennis E. Wampler; one great-grandchild and two siblings Ray Lentz and Anna Lentz.

Memorial services will be held Saturday, June 25, 2022 at 11:30AM from the Annville Church of the Brethren, 495 E. Maple St., Annville Pastor Paul Liepelt officiating. Viewing and interment will be private. A visitation will be held from 10:30AM until the time of her service at the Church.

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to the Good Samaritan Fund at Londonderry Village, 1200 Grubb Rd. Palmyra, PA 17078 or to the Annville

Church of the Brethren at the above listed address in her memory.

“ *Barbara, Kaye and Sharon,
Sending my sincerest sympathies to you and your families. I'm sad that I could not attend the Saturday service, but wanted you all to know that I'm keeping you in my thoughts and prayers during this time.*

All these years later, Gladys and I always chatted for a few minutes when I saw her at a church activity or in the community.

“ *My thoughts and prayers are with you all. I remember that smile.
She was a quiet lady.*
