“ To the family of Gladys, my deepest sympathy goes out to everyone.

I met Gladys at Cedar Haven when my mother, Kathryn, was admitted there. My mother was in the same room. Gladys was a wonderful person and my mother and I enjoyed her friendship. I remember when I went in to visit, I would go in the room and say, where are all my pretty ladies, and they would all giggle and smile. I was glad I could brighten their day.

Rest In Peace, SWEET LADY, and I know my mother will be waiting for her friend at the PEARLY GATES OF HEAVEN. God bless everyone.
