“I did not know Glen. I am a good friend of Deb Moyer Perez. Wife to his son Mark. Deb shared many memories of Pappy. She always referred to him as her father-in-law. She loved him very much. She tried several times to see him but because of Covid quarantines and being she was not a blood relative, she was denied visitation. She kept up with him as best she could through mutual friends. I know she will miss him and is glad he isn't suffering in this imperfect world any longer. Deb, I'm praying for your comfort and peace.
