“ I will always remember fondly the many good times we had together. Aunt Gloria always had a good sense of humor and a warm heart. I still remember racing my brother down the hall of the apartment building when we'd visit in Falls Church to see who'd be the first there to ring the door and get the first hand in the M&M candy dish. Our thoughts and prayers are with you Uncle Bill, Bill and Debbie. Love, Steve, Melissa, Max, Luke, Jake and Sammy

“ I will forever remember and cherish the joyous times I shared with my Aunt Gloria and will never forget that distinctive laugh. Aunt Gloria was always so concerned about everyone else's wellbeing over her own. No one loved a pumpkin cookie more than my Aunt Gloria! I am so thankful for those final days I was able to spend with her and enjoy her humor once again. I take comfort knowing she is with my dad and grandparents now. You are in my heart forever. Love and comfort goes out to Uncle Bill, Bill and Debbie. Love you, Lisa
