“ I am saddened to hear of Gordon's passing, my sincere condolence to his family. I grew up with Gordy in Newmanstown and was proud to have him as a friend. I remember the day he got married and how happy he was when his children were born. He was a very loving person with a heart of gold. Always willing to do anything he could to help out anyone in need. I went in the Army and did not have as much contact with Gordy as I should have, but when we did manage to meet he was always excited to tell me what the kids were doing. He was a very proud Father and loved you all so dearly. I will always cherish his friendship. Know that you are in my thoughts and in my prayers.
