“ Oh such fond memories I have camping with your family. A favorite camping meal was hot dogs and Mac and cheese. Still to this day it's a favorite of mine. But yours seem to taste better for some reason. Oh and the delicious pies you would bake. Fly high Grace. Your in the loving arms of John. You are loved and will be missed immensely. There's no more suffering. RIP and God Bless

“ Aunt Grace, we will miss you. Your leaving has left a huge void for all of us who loved you. I am sure, however, that Everyone is having a grand time in Heaven.
A favorite memory was traveling on Route 84 following Kathleen's first birthday party in CT and catching up to the car with Uncle John, Aunt Grace, Aunt Pearl and my mom in New York and having an unplanned picnic to sit out a traffic jam. We laughed and reminisced. So much fun!
Love you. Prayers and hugs for all! Janice and Richard Ogurcak

We are traveling and sorry to miss the service. Glad though that it is being live streamed so we can join in from afar.

Still, yours always tasted better than mine for some reason. Oh, and your homemade pies were delicious. I'll cherish those memories always. Fly high Grace. You're loved and will be missed by many. You're home with your loving husband and suffering no more. Rest In Peace Always.
